A limit of £5,000 per person applies in the event of death or £2000 per person in the event of loss of limb(s) or loss of eye(s) as a direct result of an accident while travelling in the insured car or any other private car. Other limitations apply to this benefit (See Section 10 for details).
Child seats (Section 11)	Comprehensive / Third Party Fire and Theft	If your car is involved in an incident, damaged by fire or theft or is stolen we will pay up to £100 to replace child seats even if there is no apparent damage.

SIGNIFICANT & UNUSUAL GENERAL EXCLUSIONS/LIMITATIONS

Excesses (Sections 1, and 6)	You will have to pay the amounts of excess shown in your motor policy schedule. The amount will vary depending on the type of damage and under Section 1 may be increased if your car is being driven by a young and/or inexperienced driver. The amount of young and/or inexperienced driver excess is determined by the status of the driver at the time of the incident leading to a claim under the policy.
Looking after your car (Exclusions to Section 1, General Exclusions and General Conditions)	The policy will not pay if you have not maintained the car in a roadworthy condition – this includes having a current MOT Certificate if required. We will not pay for damage resulting from an inappropriate type or grade of fuel being used. There is no cover for damage caused deliberately by you or the person driving We will not pay for further damage to your car if, following an accident, it is driven or there is an attempt to drive it in a damaged condition.
Driving licences (General Exclusions)	You and all drivers must comply with the conditions of your driving licence(s) otherwise cover will not be provided by the policy.
Drink/Drugs Exclusion (General Exclusions)	The policy will not pay if you are involved in an accident and are subsequently convicted of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time of such accident.
Riot and Civil Commotion (General Exclusions 7b)	This policy does not cover loss or damage arising, during or in consequence of: riot or civil commotion occurring elsewhere than in Great Britain, Isle of Man or The Channel Islands, except as required by any Road Traffic Act.

Cancellation

If this policy does not meet your needs, or If you wish to cancel your cover, or if you require more information regarding cancellation, then please call 0333 222 4540.

You can also email: car@brightsideinsurance.co.uk

Or write to: Brightside car insurance, Brightside Park, Severn Bridge, Aust, Bristol BS35 4BL.

Cancellation by you.

If the policy is cancelled before cover has started you will be entitled to a full refund of the premium paid.

You have the right to cancel your policy during a period of 14 days either from the day of purchase of the contract or the day on which you receive your policy documentation, whichever is the later, unless we are required to make a total loss payment under the policy, under which circumstances you must pay the full annual premium and you will not be entitled to any refund. If you exercise your right to cancel during the 14 days period of cover you will be entitled to a refund of premium paid subject to a deduction for the time you have been covered.

If you decide to cancel after 14 days and the cover has started you will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid (providing you have not made a claim, or a claim has not been made against you), subject to a deduction for the time you have been covered and the charges as detailed in the Brightside car insurance terms of business, (available from the website).

The full annual premium is payable in the event of a fault claim and no refund will be given.

Where we may cancel your cover

We or Brightside car insurance may cancel the policy if we have a good reason for doing so.

Some examples of situations where we would have a good reason for cancelling your policy include:

- a) Non-payment of the premium due; or
- b) You have changed your vehicle during the policy to one we cannot cover; or
- c) You have failed to supply requested validation documentation (such as evidence of No Claim Discount and copies of driving licences for all named drivers); or
- d) We identify misrepresentation or fraud or any attempt to gain an advantage under this insurance to which you are not entitled.

Before we or Brightside car insurance cancel your policy you will be given seven days' notice to either the email address or postal address shown on your account.

Where we or Brightside car insurance cancel the policy you will be entitled to a refund of the unused premium paid. Where we return an unused premium it will be subject to a deduction of the charges shown in the Brightside car insurance Terms of Business. In cases of fraud we are permitted to retain your premium under the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012.

Please note the full annual premium is payable if you have used the policy to make a fault claim or a fault claim has been made against you and no refund will be given.

Monthly Instalment under a Credit Agreement

If you are paying your premium using monthly credit facilities, you must make regular monthly payments as per the terms of your credit agreement. If you fail to do this, your lender reserves the right to terminate your credit agreement. If your credit agreement is terminated your insurance cover may also be cancelled in accordance with the terms of your policy unless the remainder of the premium due is paid. If Brightside car cancel your insurance for this reason, there will be cancellation charges, as set out in the Brightside car Terms of Business.
